

Pastor Keith was born in Seoul, South Korea. When he was 12 years old, he immigrated to Toronto, Canada with his parents. While attending McMaster University in Hamilton, he received his calling to ministry as he was serving a Christian fellowship group on campus. Upon graduation, he continued his education at Tyndale Seminary and received a Master of Divinity. Pastor Keith has been serving churches in the Toronto and Vancouver area for about 16 years. Before joining NSPG, he served as a Regional Church Representative for World Vision Canada. Pastor Keith is married to Erica and they have two children, Katelyn and Caleb. During his time off he enjoys walking, hiking, biking and kayaking.
